PREAMBLE

Whereas it is the intent and purpose of the parties to this Agreement to promote harmony between the Company and its employees and to increase the efficiency of the operations and facilities so that the employees and the Company may mutually benefit; and to provide procedures for the prompt, peaceful and equitable adjustment of differences which arise; and also to set forth herein the Agreement between the Company, the Union and the employees of the Lloydminster shop concerning rates of pay, hours of employment and other conditions of work to be observed by the parties to this Agreement.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises and the mutual agreements hereinafter stated, it is agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION AND SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

- 1:01 The Company recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agent for all hourly rated production and maintenance employees in the performance of all fabrication and repair work except office staff, foremen/charge hands with the right to hire and fire and those above that rank.
- 1:02 Believing that both parties must give service to the public, the Union agrees to co-operate with and assist the Company in every legitimate way to conduct a successful business.
- 1:03 This Agreement shall cover all hourly paid employees as listed in Appendix A - WORK CLASSIFICATION AND WAGES - attached hereto and made a part hereof, who are within the jurisdiction of Lodge 146 and shall pertain to no other.
- 1:04 It is recognized by the Union that circumstances may require the use of sub-contractors on work covered under the terms of this Agreement. The Employer agrees that if such circumstances arise, they shall:
- a) Except in cases of emergency, provide the Union Business Representative with 14 days' written notice of the nature of the intended contracting out and likely consequences, if any, to the job assignments of the bargaining unit members.
 - b) At the request of the Union, meet with the Business Representative of the Union to discuss the reasons for contracting out and to consider alternative solutions.

The assignment of sub-contractors must not cause lay-off, demotion, or reduction of work hours among the employees governed by the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 2 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2:01 The Union agrees that it is the function of the Company to exercise the usual functions of management, including, but not so as to restrict the generality of the foregoing the right to conduct its business in all respects in accordance with its commitments and responsibilities, including the right to manage jobs, locate, extend, curtail or cease operations, to determine the number of workers or employees required at any or all operations, to determine the kinds and location of machines, tools, and equipment to be used and the schedules of jobs and work, to classify and judge the suitability of employees for various types of work and to maintain order, discipline and efficiency. To select, hire, discharge, transfer, promote, layoff or otherwise discipline employees.

2:02 It is agreed that these functions shall not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 UNION SECURITY AND EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

3:01 Any employee who is a member of the Union on the effective date of this Agreement, or who becomes or who is reinstated as a member of the Union, shall, as a condition of employment, maintain his membership in the union during the term of this Agreement.

3:02 Each new employee shall be furnished with a copy of this Agreement, the Deduction Authorization form and an official application for membership and will be informed of the name of the Union that represents him/her and the names of the Shop Steward and the Shop Committee and such new employees will, as a condition of employment, be required to execute the Deduction Authorization form to cover the amount equal to the Monthly Dues established by the Union, which will be deducted by the Company after four (4) days of employment. All new employees must sign Deduction Authorization forms authorizing checkoff of Dues, before going to work. It is recognized that the above duties shall be performed by the Shop Steward and shall be done at the time of the Company's orientation. It will also be his/her duty to assist the Employer and Union members, to carry out the provisions of this Agreement and he/she will be allowed reasonable time to perform such duties by the Employer's representative on the job.

- 3:03 The Company shall deduct, in accordance with the Alberta Labour Relations Code, the amount of Initiation Fees, Dues and Assessments as may be authorized by the Employees. Such dues, initiation fees and assessments shall be deducted from the first pay period of each month and forwarded to the Secretary-Treasurer of Lodge 146, before the fifteenth (15) day of the month. The Shop Steward shall be furnished with a list of all new employees every two (2) weeks.
- 3:04 Disciplinary action may take place for just cause, normally commencing with a written warning except for serious incidents. When an employee is to receive written notice of discipline in the form of a written warning, suspension, or dismissal, the employee and Shop Steward shall be advised in advance. The employee shall have the right to have a Shop Steward present at the meeting (except in situations a Shop Steward is not available on the shift). The shop steward will be provided with a copy of all written notices of discipline. Any written disciplinary documents will be removed from the file two (2) years from the date of issue provided the employee has not had any further disciplinary incidents during this period.
- 3:05 (a) When employees are to be used on outside construction where the Boilermakers Union employees are on a site that has a Union Site Agreement, the applicable rate for similar classifications will be paid for work on the site. The seniority of such employees shall continue as though they were still employed in the shop.
- (b) Notwithstanding 3:05 (a), in the case of a non-union or open site, when another contractor that is signatory to the Boilermaker Contractor Association arrives on the site during the Company's work, the employees will continue to receive the rates according to Appendix A.

ARTICLE 4 HOURS OF WORK

- 4:01 Eight (8) hours per day shall constitute a regular day of work. Forty (40) hours per week, Monday through Friday inclusive, shall constitute a regular week of work. The foregoing shall not be interpreted as a guarantee to provide work to any employee for regularly assigned hours or any other hours.
- 4:02 (a) The normal work day shall start at 7:00 a.m. The work schedules will be posted by the Company on a bulletin board provided by the Company, setting forth any changes in starting or quitting time or shifts. In the event the employer requires the shift schedule to change notice will be given one week in advance where practical, but no less than 72 hours in any case. Where practical, shift changes shall start at the commencement of a new work week. (The bulletin board may also be used by the Union for posting routine notices of meetings or announcements.)

- (b) In periods when overtime is not required to meet customer schedules (excluding customer service centers), the Company will make its best effort to schedule hours of work on payday or long weekend Fridays as follows: 7:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

4:03 Notwithstanding the above, a compressed work week of four (4), ten (10) hour days may be worked at straight-time rates. The normal work day shall start at 7:00 a.m.

4:04 An hourly rated employee who reports for work and is sent home for that day by reason of some breakdown, inclement weather, or cause for which he/she is not responsible shall be paid for the actual time worked, or for four (4) hours, whichever is greater.

4:05 Whenever there is a need to have employees work weekend overtime within a classification, the overtime will be offered to:

- 1) The employee within the classification who has been performing the work.
- 2) If the employee within the classification is unable to perform the requested overtime, then the Company may, at its option:
 - (a) Offer the overtime to other employees who have the ability to perform the work, or
 - (b) Offer the overtime to the most senior employee(s) within the classification capable of performing the work required, or
 - (c) Assign the overtime to the least senior employee(s) within the classification capable of performing the work required.

Each employee is expected to co-operate in the performance of such work.

ARTICLE 5 SHIFT WORK

5:01 When two (2) or three (3) shifts are working, the first day shift shall be paid at the applicable rates set out in Appendix A.

5:02 When an employee is scheduled to work the second or evening shift he/she shall be paid a shift premium of three dollars ($3.00) for each hour worked. When a third or graveyard shift is scheduled employees shall be paid a shift premium of three dollars fifty cents ($3.50) for each hour worked.

5:03 Employees will be given a minimum of two (2) days notice (exclusive of weekend days) prior to any change in shift, except in cases of emergency or work force realignments necessary because of employee absenteeism. The Company reserves the right of placement of personnel on the various shifts, and shifts shall be alternated each two (2) weeks. No employee will be required to work more than two (2) weeks on a second or third shift without change or relief, unless he/she so desires.

5:04 Employees with ten (10) years or more seniority may refuse to work other than day shift. This condition will not apply to employees hired after September 1, 2000.

ARTICLE 6 OVERTIME AND STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

6:01 (a) All hours worked on Saturday shall be paid at one and one half (1 1/2) times the regular pay provided the employee has worked forty (40) hours from Monday to Friday inclusive.

The requirement for forty (40) hours shall be reduced by the number of hours absent for medical reasons verified with a doctor's note or permission to be off has been granted by immediate supervisor or employee is sent home for lack of work.

(b) All hours worked in excess of the regular scheduled hours, Monday to Friday inclusive, shall be paid at one and one half (1 1/2) times the regular pay.

6:02 Overtime, shall be paid at the rate of double (2) time the employee's basic hourly rate for all hours worked on Sunday.

6:03 There shall be no pyramiding or duplication of premium or additional pay. If an employee is called back to work by the immediate supervisor after normal work hours for any maintenance and repair services requested by a customer, and if such work function is less than two (2) hours, the employee shall be reimbursed for a minimum of two (2) hours.

6:04 When an employee is required to work on a Statutory holiday, the employee will be paid the required Statutory holiday pay along with one and one-half (1 1/2) times their regular basic hourly rate for all hours worked on the Statutory holiday.

6:05 The period of time recognized as a holiday is the twenty-four (24) hour period beginning at the starting time of the regular shift on the day that is recognized as a holiday.

6:06 When the Company requires an employee to work one and one half (1.5) hours over their scheduled shift the Company shall reasonably provide such employee with a hot meal and a twenty (20) minute paid meal break. Should the Company fail to provide a hot meal, a twenty-five ($25.00) dollar meal allowance shall be provided.

The employee shall be given a ten (10) minute rest period before commencing said overtime.

6:07 An employee covered by this Agreement will receive regular pay for the following Statutory Holidays when not worked, provided he/she works the day previous and the day following such holiday, unless permission to be off has been granted by management or by the immediate supervisor:

New Year's Day	Good Friday	Remembrance Day
Family Day	Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Labour Day	Boxing Day
Civic Holiday	Thanksgiving Day

Such holidays shall be paid at the highest rate between B Welder and Journeyman Welder rates.

6:08 No work shall be performed on Labour Day, except for the preservation of life or property.

ARTICLE 7 ANNUAL VACATIONS

7:01 The purpose of a vacation is to provide the employee with definite periods of rest each year. Vacation and pay will be granted to employees in accordance with the provisions of the Alberta Labour Employment Standards Code.

7:02 Annual vacations will be as follows:

- Regular employees with one (1) to five (5) years of continuous service - three (3) weeks.
- Regular employees with six (6) years to fifteen (15) years of continuous service - four (4) weeks.

- Regular employees with sixteen (16) years or longer of continuous service – five (5) weeks.

Each employee may make an annual declaration to have vacation pay either: 1) on each cheque, or 2) accrued to be paid out at the time of vacation. Vacation pay will be calculated as follows:

- One (1) to five (5) years - 6% of regular wages of the employee in the employ of the Company.
- Six (6) to fifteen (15) years - 8% of regular wages of the employee in the employ of the Company.
- Sixteen (16) years and longer - 10% of regular wages of the employee in the employ of the Company.

7:03 As far as possible employees shall be granted their choice of vacation periods according to their seniority, but the right to allocate vacation periods is reserved by the Company in order to insure efficient and continuous operation of the business.

ARTICLE 8 SENIORITY

8:01 Seniority, as referred to in this agreement, shall mean the length of continuous service in the employ of the Company, and shall prevail on a Company wide basis. Employees of the Company shall retain their seniority uninterrupted from the date prior to and including receivership.

8:02 All employees are hired on probation; the probationary period to continue for sixty (60) calendar days during which time they are to be considered temporary workers only. If employed continuously for a period of sixty (60) or less calendar days and then laid off his seniority shall date back to the initial date of hire. Upon completion of the probationary period they shall be regarded as regular permanent employees and shall then be entitled to seniority based on the day on which they were initially hired.

8:03 In all cases of promotion and layoff or recall from layoff, shift work, or apprenticeship, the factors of seniority and ability to perform the required work will be considered. When ability is relatively equal, seniority shall govern.

8:04 Separate seniority lists shall be kept for each category as per the wage listing. In the case of layoffs, each list shall be considered a separate unit. The Employer will supply seniority lists.

- 8:05 Employees laid off shall accumulate seniority, provided the layoff does not exceed one (1) year, after which the employee will lose all seniority rights.
Priority may be given to employees for recall as per specific work area requirements.
- 8:06 Probationary employees laid off due to lack of work shall receive one (1) day of notice or pay in lieu thereof.

Permanent employees laid off due to lack of work shall receive payment or notice applicable to the Alberta Labour Employment Standards Code. The Shop Steward shall be advised of all layoffs in advance.
- 8:07 Any employee in the bargaining unit who has been promoted to the position of foreman or supervisor in the shop shall maintain the seniority he had at the time of his promotion.
- 8:08 A permanent employee's seniority shall be accumulated for a maximum of two (2) years for an absence as a result of sickness covered by a medical certificate or an accident covered by the Workers' Compensation Board. A permanent employee's seniority shall be maintained for a maximum of two (2) years for an authorized leave-of-absence.
- 8:09 Should an employee be required to work on field construction or maintenance, his seniority shall continue as if he was in the shop. The employee must be made aware of the seniority condition by the employer prior to the employee accepting field employment.

ARTICLE 9 SAFETY AND WORKING CONDITIONS

- 9:01 The Company agrees to continue to make every reasonable effort to provide safe and healthful conditions of work for employees and to continue its practice of providing necessary safety equipment. The Union agrees to assist the Company in maintaining proper observation of all Occupation Health and Safety Board rules, laws and regulations, and the Company safety manual.

Employees are responsible for working safely, fully observing safety standards and rules, and the directions of the Company in this respect.
- 9:02 If an employee meets with an accident during working hours, he/she shall report the accident to his/her foreman, supervisor or first-aid man and follow his/her instructions. Should an attending physician deem it not safe for him/her to continue his/her work, he/she shall be paid his/her regular pay for that full shift provided that the attending physician's report is given to the Company.

- 9:03 At all times, the Company must first be advised before the employee reports to a physician, of all work related injuries and/or suspected work related injuries by reporting to the foreman, supervisor or first aid person prior to completion of the shift. Failure to comply may result in disciplinary action.
- 9:04 The Company may request an employee to provide a doctor's report on his/her illness if the employee has missed three (3) or more consecutive working days. If a medical report is requested by the Company, the Company shall pay the charge imposed by the doctor for said report.
- 9:05 The Company agrees to supply employees with hand protection, but reserves the right to refuse free issue to any employee who may from time to time be deemed to be abusing the privilege. The Company will provide replacement coveralls to employees involved in specialty work outside his/her normal working duties, i.e. cleaning out crude tankers.
- 9:06 Employees shall be allowed a fifteen (15) minute rest period or coffee break during each four (4) or four and one-half (4 1/2) hour work period, i.e. morning, afternoon, evening or night.
- 9:07 The employee must accept reasonable responsibility for the tools and equipment furnished by the Company and must report the loss of any of these tools and equipment immediately to his/her superior. Any employee found misusing company tools and equipment may be subject to dismissal. Responsibility for normal wear and tear of tools and equipment supplied by the Company is accepted by the Company on return of broken or worn tools or equipment.
- The Company shall provide adequate protection and storage for all tools and equipment taken out on any job or work.
- 9:08 The Company will train and enforce confined and restricted space requirements where applicable involving vessels and tanks as per Occupational Health and Safety regulations.
- 9:09 The Company shall provide tool insurance up to $2,000.00 for employees providing their own tools with the exception of machinists and mechanics whose insurance will be $10,000.00, for theft and fire. To be eligible, employees must have a tool list on file and signed by their supervisor.
- 9:10 Change room, lunchroom, washroom and locker facilities shall be provided by the Company and kept in a sanitary condition. The Shop

Committee and employees agree to co-operate in keeping these facilities sanitary otherwise, at the discretion of management, the facility may be forfeited. Personal effects of each employee shall be covered by fire insurance in the amount of three hundred and fifty ($350.00) dollars. Locker facilities will be provided with reasonably secure doors.

9:11 In the event of the death of an employee's spouse, child, mother, father, brother, sister, grandmother, grandfather, mother-in-law or father-in-law such employee shall receive up to three (3) days off with regular pay when the employee attend the funeral, proof of attendance may be requested, to a maximum of six (6) days per year. Additional time off may be granted with no pay.

9:12 In the event an employee is unable to travel to the funeral, the Company will allow for one (1) day of grieving with pay with the mutual agreement between the shop steward and facility manager.

9:13 After an employee has been with the Company for a period of thirty (30) days, employees working on June 15 and December 15 of each year shall be paid a coverall/boot allowance of $250.00 on the first payday following each of these dates.

On abnormally dirty and/or corrosive work, in which the employee's clothes may be permanently damaged; the employer shall supply or replace the necessary protective clothing (coveralls, gloves, boots, particularly on, but not limited to, all corrosive work) at no cost to the employee for all employees covered by this Agreement.

9:14 The Company commits to performing scheduled air-quality testing of the work environment as per Occupational Health and Safety regulations. All test results will be recorded and shared with affected workers in order to work on reasonable controls to help protect workers.

9:15 The Company agrees to maintain automobile electrical plug-in facilities for employees' vehicles. The allocation will be handled on a first come, first served basis, in keeping with current practice.

9:16 Employees shall be permitted a five (5) minute personal clean up time prior to the end of their shift.

ARTICLE 10 WAGES, HEALTH & WELFARE, AND EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

10:01 WAGES - Refer to Appendix A

- 10:02 NEW HIRES - Refer to Appendix A
This article does not restrict management from waiving the aforementioned.
- 10:03 HEALTH & WELFARE - Refer to Appendix B
- 10:04 The Company shall provide Employee Assistance program at no cost to the employee.
- 10:05 Apprentices shall be reimbursed their tuition for apprenticeship training by the employer, at the current rate level of tuition. The conditions of reimbursement shall be as follows:
- The employee must have been signed with the Apprenticeship Board through The Company at the time schooling was taken.
 - The employee must pass said technical training.
 - The employee must work for The Company for a total of twelve (12) months exclusive of training (e.g.: 1st year welder goes to school after nine (9) months of employment and passes, once he/she has worked a total of twelve (12) months including the first nine (9) – UIC will reimburse him/her for his/her first (1st) year school and so on).

ARTICLE 11 SHOP COMMITTEE

- 11:01 The importance of the Union maintaining at all times a Shop Committee, consisting of qualified employees of the Company familiar with plant conditions, is recognized.
- 11:02 The selection of the Shop Committee is recognized as a function of the Union. The Committee shall consist of not less than one (1) nor more than three (3) employees. The chairman of this Committee shall be the Shop Steward and owing to the nature of his/her work on the committee, it is deemed important that seniority does not affect his/her layoff, therefore, in the event of a layoff he/she shall be second last man off the job, provided that he/she is qualified to perform the required work. The Shop Steward shall be given a reasonable length of time to perform his duties. The Shop Steward shall work days only.
- 11:03 The Shop Committee shall act in the capacity of the Grievance Committee and the names of the Committee members shall be posted on the bulletin board in the shop by the Union from time to time as the occasion warrants.

11:04 The Shop Committee shall meet not less than quarterly with the management to review safety and other concerns.

ARTICLE 12 GRIEVANCE MACHINERY AND ARBITRATION

12:01 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE - It is agreed that grievances will be reduced in writing, if requested, signed by the aggrieved employee or employees and will be presented for the first steps in the grievance procedure within ten (10) working days. The steps for handling grievances will be as follows:

- 1) Between the aggrieved employee(s), the Shop Committee chairman of the Union and the foreman in the department.

Failure of adjustment, then all grievances must be reduced to writing and handled as follows:

- 2) Between the aggrieved employee(s), the Shop Committee chairman and the superintendent.

- 3) Between the representative of the Union, with the Shop Committee chairman and a representative of Management.

- a) Should any difference of opinion as to the proper interpretation of this Agreement or other causes that cannot be settled satisfactorily between a representative of the Union and the Company arise, then the case must go to arbitration as provided for in the Alberta Labour Relations Code, before any stoppage of work takes place on the part of the employee(s) or any lockout on the part of the Company.

- b) If the parties are unable to resolve a difference referred to in clause (a), either party may notify the other in writing of its desire to submit the difference to arbitration.

- c) The notice referred to in clause (b) shall

- i. contain a statement of the difference, and

- ii. specify the name or a list of names of the person or persons it is willing to accept as the single arbitrator.

- d) On receipt of a notice referred to in clause (b), the party receiving the notice,
 - i. if it accepts the person or one of the persons suggested to act as arbitrator, shall, within seven (7) days, notify the other party accordingly, and the difference shall be submitted to the arbitrator, or
 - ii. if it does not accept any of the persons suggested by the party sending the notice, shall, within seven (7) days, notify the other party accordingly and send the name or a list of names of the person or persons it is willing to accept as the single arbitrator.
- e) If the parties are unable to agree on a person to act as the single arbitrator, either party may request the Director in writing to appoint a single arbitrator.
- f) The arbitrator may, during the arbitration, proceed in the absence of any party or person who, after notice, fails to attend or fails to obtain an adjournment.
- g) The arbitrator shall inquire into the difference and issue an award in writing, and the award is final and binding on the parties and on every employee affected by it.
- h) The parties agree to share equally the expenses of the arbitrator.
- i) Except as permitted in clause (j), the arbitrator shall not alter, amend or change the terms or conditions of the collective agreement.
- j) If the arbitrator by the arbitrator's award determines that an employee has been discharged or otherwise disciplined by an employer for cause and the collective agreement does not contain a specific penalty for the infraction that is the subject-matter of the arbitration, the arbitrator may substitute any penalty for the discharge or discipline that to the arbitrator seems just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
- k) Where the arbitrator determines that an employee has been discharged or disciplined by an employer for cause and the collective agreement does not contain a specific penalty for the infraction that is the subject of the arbitration, the arbitrator may substitute for the discharge or discipline some other penalty that in the arbitrator's opinion is just and reasonable in the circumstances.

- l) The arbitrator may interpret, apply and give relief in accordance with an enactment relating to employment matters notwithstanding any conflict between the enactment and the collective agreement.

ARTICLE 13 NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT

13:01 The Union agrees that there shall be no strike, slowdown or stoppage of work during the life of this Agreement and the Company agrees that there shall be no lockout during the life of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 14 DURATION OF AGREEMENT

14:01 This Agreement shall become effective June 4, 2018, and shall remain in full force and effect until May 31, 2021, and thereafter it shall be renewed from year to year unless notice for change or termination is given as set forth below.

14:02 Either party to this agreement may, not less than sixty (60) days, or not more than one hundred twenty (120) days immediately preceding the expiry date of this Agreement, require by notice in writing to the other party by registered or certified mail, to commence collective bargaining for the revision, renewal or replacement of this collective Agreement. If notice to negotiate has been given, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect until the commencement of lawful strike or lockout or until the date that a new Collective Agreement comes into effect.

14:03 Notwithstanding 14:02 above, either party to this Collective Agreement may, not less than sixty-five (65) days and not more than one hundred and twenty (120) days immediately preceding the expiry date of this Agreement, serve notice to the other party by registered or certified mail of its intent to terminate this Agreement on the expiry date listed in 14:01 above, all in accordance with the provisions of the Alberta Labour Relations Code.

14:04 Where a particular article or articles of this Collective Agreement is or are found to work a hardship for a particular project or specific geographical area, the terms and conditions of this Agreement for that project or specific geographical area, may be modified by the mutual consent of the Business Manager and the Company when they deem it prudent. It is understood and agreed that where mutual Agreement for such change cannot be achieved, the request shall not be subject to either grievances or arbitration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have executed this Agreement this _____ day of _____, 2018.
